

When flies come into your home you screen in the openings to stop the invasion, not the fresh air. 2.8 million New Jersians know flies when the hear them. We don't like being bugged. The Telephone Protection Act is our screen. Keep it in place.
Pete Tilgner